London, July 1.—Senator Han-na is attracting much attention in 19 0 to Senator Shelby Cullom, the London papers. The "Americ chairman of the Hawaiian Commission, expressing the hope that Chronicle styles him. In regard to Presidential prospects, the Senator said: "If you wait a year I shall, perhaps, be able to tell you who will be the next President. That is about all most anybody could say. But as to Admiral Dewey, why I do not suppose he is likely to walk on the carpet."
